

KANT AND MODALITY

July 5–7, 2012/ Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin, Unter den Linden 6, room 3031

organized by Toni Kannisto and Tobias Rosefeldt/ kindly supported by Fritz Thyssen Stiftung

THURSDAY, JULY 5TH MODALITY, POSSIBILITY

09.15

Welcome

Section 1

Chair: Desmond Hogan (Princeton University)

09.30 – 11.00

Timothy Rosenkoetter (Dartmouth College): The Reciprocal Dependence of Kant's Theory of Judgment and His Views on Modality

11.30 – 13.00

Berna Kilinc (Bogazici Universitesi): The Subjectivity of Modals in Kant's Theoretical Philosophy

Section 2

Chair: Tobias Rosefeldt (HU Berlin)

15.00 – 16.30

Uygar Abaci (University of Pennsylvania): Kant and the Co-extensiveness of Modal Categories

17.00 – 18.30

Markku Leppäkoski (Stockholm University): How to Make Sense of Kant's Modality

FRIDAY, JULY 6TH

ACTUALITY

Section 3

Chair: Toni Kannisto (University of Oslo)

09.30 – 11.00

Ian Blecher (University of Pittsburgh): Kant on Being and Actuality

11.15 – 12.45

Alberto Vanzo (University of Birmingham): Kant on Existential Import

Section 4

Chair: Wolfgang Ertl (Keio University, Tokyo)

14.15 – 15.45

Tobias Rosefeldt (HU Berlin): Kant on Existence and Real Predicates

16.15 – 17.45

Ralf Busse (Johannes Gutenberg-Universität Mainz): Kant on Intuition, Objecthood, and Existence

18.00 – 19.30

Giuseppe Motta (Universität Trier): Kant's New Definition of the Concept of Existence in the Critique of Judgment

SATURDAY, JULY 7TH

NECESSITY

Section 5

Chair: Barbara Vetter (HU Berlin)

09.30 – 11.00

Jessica Leech (University of Cambridge): Metaphysical Necessity: Some Lessons from Kant

11.30 – 13.00

Toni Kannisto (University of Oslo): Causality and the Postulate of Necessity

Section 6

Chair: Rolf-Peter Horstmann (HU Berlin)

15.00 – 16.30

Nicholas Stang (University of Miami): Divine Necessity and Unschematized Modal Categories

17.00 – 18.30

Andrew Chignell (Cornell University): Modality in Kant's Religion